

LETTER OF AGREEMENT between Illinois Department of Conservation and
the Menard County Historical Society

This agreement is made this 3rd day of Agusut, 1984, by the Menard County Historical Society (hereafter referred to as the Society) and in favor of the Illinois Department of Conservation (hereafter referred to as the "Department") for the purpose of the rehabilitation of a certain Property known as the Frackelton Bank, located at 123 South 7th Street, Petersburg, IL 62675, which is owned in fee simple by the Society and is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

The Property is comprised essentially of grounds, collateral, appurtenances, and improvements and is known as the Frackelton Bank. The Property's legal description is as follows:

The South one-third of Lot Four (4) in Block Three (3) in the original town, now City, of Petersburg.

In consideration of the sum of Four Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500.00) received in grant-in-aid assistance through the Department from the National Park Service, United States Department of the Interior, the Society hereby agrees to the following for a period of five (5) years: Beginning August 1, 1984, ending July 31, 1989.

1. The Society agrees to assume the cost of the continued maintenance and repair of said Property so as to preserve the architectural, historical, or archeological integrity of the same in order to protect and enhance those qualities that made the Property eligible for listing in the Natonal Register of Historic Places.
2. The Society agrees that no visual or structural alterations will be made to the Property without prior written permission of the Department.

3. The Society agrees that the Department, its agents and designees shall have the right to inspect the Property at all reasonable times in order to ascertain whether or not the conditions of the agreement are being observed.
4. The Society agrees that when the Property is not clearly visible from a public right of way or includes interior work assisted with Historic Preservation grant funds, the Property will be open to the public no less than 12 days a year on an equitably spaced basis and at other times by appointment. Nothing in this agreement will prohibit the Society from charging a reasonable nondiscriminatory admission fee, comparable to fees charged at similar facilities in the area. The Society further agrees that when the Property is not open to the public on a continuing basis, and when the improvements assisted with Historic Preservation grant funds are not visible from the public way, notification will be published in newspapers of general circulation in the community area in which the Property is located giving dates and times when the Property will be open to the public. Documentation of such notice will be furnished annually to the Department during the term of the agreement.

This agreement shall be enforceable in specific performance by a court of competent jurisdiction or, alternatively, the Department may, at its discretion, seek monetary damages.
